(With approval, the following information is from the CCC Music Department website.)

The Music Department at Clackamas Community College offers two-year degree programs in traditional and contemporary performance styles, as well as a one-year certificate in Music Technology.

Our alumni are currently working in the field as professional musicians, music educators, producers, composers, recording engineers, music engravers, sound designers, live sound engineers, church worship leaders and more.

At Clackamas, you'll hone your stage skills by participating in one CCC's seven performance groups and performing in a variety of concerts and major music festivals: Wind Ensemble; Chamber Choir; Contemporary Jazz Ensemble; Vocal Jazz; String Orchestra; and, Jazz Combo

WHY CHOOSE CCC'S MUSIC PROGRAM?

- CCC's program is one of the best values for the money. Not only is tuition more affordable than comparable programs, but there are a variety of scholarships available.
- Clackamas offers incredible resources for you to practice your craft including Music Technology Labs where you can perform, record, and produce music media.
- A long and unbroken history of strong preparation for traditional music performance, composition/theory, and music education students.

- An innovative Digital Media Communications 2-year degree that broadens the range of “creative” careers open to music students.
- CCC has Oregon's only state-approved Music Technology professional-technical certificate.
- Our vocal and instrumental ensemble students have taken tours to Estonia, England, France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Canada and the USA.

MORE ABOUT THE CCC MUSIC PROGRAMS

  - Looking to enter the technical world of music production? The Music Technology certificate will prepare you with the hands-on training and study needed for fulfilling technical careers such as media/sound engineer, audio software developer, film Foley artist, post production for film and many others.

MUSIC PERFORMANCES AT CCC

- Each year, CCC's Music Department offers dozens of opportunities to hear live music performed by students, faculty, guest artists and ensembles of all sizes.
- For information on our competitive performance festivals, visit our Music Festivals page.

CLACKAMAS SUMMER BAND CAMP

- In addition to their Brilliant Voices Summer Music Camp which is open to singers in grades nine and up who want to immerse themselves in a five-day musical journey to foster growth and inspiration, CCC offers a Summer Band Camp!
- Clackamas Summer Band Camp is a week-long summer music program that's perfect for instrumental musicians of all levels who want to improve their skills, play fun and challenging wind ensemble repertoire, and learn about music theory. Held at the beautiful Niemeyer Center for Performing Arts on the Oregon City campus, students learn from renowned Portland-area musicians in a comfortable college campus setting, with plenty of rehearsal time. Camp runs from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. daily with a Friday evening concert. Conducted by Lars Campbell, CCC's Director of Instrumental Music.

Registration is open to students entering grades 9-13 with at least two years of experience in a school ensemble. Students who play flute, clarinet, bass clarinet, oboe, bassoon, saxophone, horn, trumpet, trombone, euphonium, tuba, double bass, piano, and percussion are encouraged to register!
