

Musician Profile: Flutist Lucia Moreno

Tell us a little bit about yourself and your life as a musician.

My name is Lucía and I'm in 11th grade. I'm a bookworm and the oldest child in my family. I've been playing flute for 6.5 years. When I decided to join the school band in 4th grade I chose flute because I thought it sounded the coolest, and I've never looked back! My mom played french horn in high school and my dad plays a little guitar, so music runs in the family

What projects are you involved with now that particularly excite you?

In terms of music, the Flute Ensemble is the main project I'm in, and I find it a lot of fun! It's challenging in a way school band just isn't, and I love the chance to make friends with other flute players.

What's on your music stand lately? What pieces are you learning?

With my private teacher I've been learning J. Andersen's Cadenzas for Mozart's flute concerto No. 2, as well as mariachi music.

What music have you played recently, or recordings have you listened to that you'd like to share with GPFS members?

I don't think I have any right now.

Who is your favorite flutist?

I'm afraid I don't know the names of many flutists, but my aunt played flute when she was my age, so maybe her!

What kind of flute(s) do you play?

I mostly play standard flute, but recently I've been having fun learning alto flute and piccolo.

Favorite book you've read or movie you've seen lately? Or, what do you like to do when you are not making music?

I recently saw Dune part 2 and thought it was amazing. As a bookworm, I have a lot of favorite books, but I recently finished the third book in Brandon Sanderson's Mistborn series, all of which I think are really good.
