

Musician Profile: Flutist Scout Wiese

Tell us a little bit about yourself and your life as a musician.

I'm in sophomore year and have been playing flute since 5th grade. I am a member of Sam Barlow High School Symphonic band.

What projects are you involved with now that particularly excite you?

As of right now, the Metropolitan Youth Symphony flute ensemble and high school band are my biggest projects!

What's on your music stand lately? What pieces are you learning?

Lately, I have been learning a piece for my personal interest, Andante Et Scherzo by Lois Ganne.

What music have you played recently or recordings have you listened to that you'd like to share with GPFS members?

Recently my band at school performed Khan for a state competition.

Who is your favorite flutist?

I'm not actually sure...

What kind of flute(s) do you play?

Just classic flute but I am interested in trying base!

Favorite book you've read or movie you've seen lately? Or, what do you like to do when you are not making music?

I recently read 'No Longer Human' by Dazai Osamu and really enjoyed it. In my free time, I like to draw as well as play video games.
